Chapter 1 by Luna

Ruby explored her new home. It was a musty old house and it reeked of dusty despair.

"I cannot wait to start dance lessons." she announces as she climbs a set of stairs that leads to an attic.

Ruby never wanted to move. Her father had obtained a new job and they were forced to move. Her old house was bigger and more elegant than this dump.

She observed all the old knick-knacks left behind from the last owners of the house.

There was one thing that caught her attention though.

A bookshelf.

There were old, musty books. Clean, shiny new books. There was fiction and non-fiction. Anime and comics. But there was also a particularly large book that caught her attention. There was no title on the side and it was decorated with flowers.

Ruby picks the book up.

"This thing is so light..."

THUMP

The book is actually a box and a pair of simple white shoes fall out with a pair of thin, white laces tied into a ribbon.
